

TERMS FOR PRESENTING PROPOSALS FOR PARTICIPATION AND EXPERTISE SHARING

“About Gender ViolenceS”

13TH INTERNATIONAL CONGRESS FOR THE STUDY OF VIOLENCE AGAINST WOMEN:

Seville, 8–9 November 2022

The terms set out below seek to enable the submission of proposals for participation and expertise sharing at the International Congress 13TH CONGRESS FOR THE STUDY OF VIOLENCE AGAINST WOMEN, to serve as an outline so that there is consistency across the presented proposals and to facilitate their assessment by the Congress Scientific-Academic Committee.

Subject matter: “About Gender ViolenceS” takes an in-depth look at the concept of gender-based violence from a comprehensive, multidisciplinary and intersectional approach, studying the different manifestations and ways through which this violence is committed.

The presented proposals should focus on gender-based violence, as envisaged in Act 13/2007 of 26 November, on prevention and comprehensive protection measures against gender-based violence, which was modified by Act 7/2018 of 30 July. All the proposals submitted will be assessed by the Congress Scientific-Academic Committee who will apply the following criteria to select the proposals, awarding a maximum of three points per criterion:

- Consistency and relevance of the work to the subject matter of the Congress
- Originality of the subject matter and/or creative approach
- Conceptual rigour and methodological precision
- Clarity of the arguments
- Quality of the sources used
- Applicability of the subject matter to professional performance
- Relevance of the conclusions

An award will be presented to the participation and expertise sharing proposal that has the highest score based on the aforementioned criteria. In the case of a tie, the Scientific-Academic Committee will make the final decision, taking into account, if necessary, the casting vote of the Chair of the Committee.
