

TERMS FOR PRESENTING SCIENTIFIC RESEARCH PAPERS

“Gender Violence: A Social Problem in the 21st Century”

14TH INTERNATIONAL CONGRESS FOR THE STUDY OF VIOLENCE AGAINST WOMEN:

Málaga, 13-14 November 2023

The terms set out below seek to enable the submission of scientific and technical research papers for the International Congress 14TH CONGRESS FOR THE STUDY OF VIOLENCE AGAINST WOMEN, to serve as an outline so that there is consistency across the presented papers and to facilitate their assessment by the Congress Scientific Committee.

Subject matter: “Gender Violence: A Social Problem in the 21st Century”.

The presented research papers should focus on gender-based violence, as envisaged in Act 7/2018 of 30 July, which modifies Act 13/2007 of 26 November, on prevention and comprehensive protection measures against gender-based violence. All the papers submitted will be assessed by the Congress Scientific Committee who will apply the following criteria to select the studies, awarding a maximum of three points per criterion:

- Consistency and relevance of the work to the subject matter of the Congress
- Originality of the subject matter and/or creative approach
- Conceptual rigour and methodological precision
- Clarity of the arguments
- Scientific and technical interest
- Quality of the sources and documentary resources used
- Applicability of the subject matter to professional performance
- Relevance of the conclusions

An award will be presented to the scientific and technical research paper of greatest interest and therefore that has the highest score based on the aforementioned criteria. In the case of a tie, the Scientific Committee will make the final decision, taking into account, if necessary, the casting vote of the Chair of the Committee.

Selection:

The proposals will be selected based on the submitted abstract. Applicants are, therefore, strongly encouraged to take particular care in the preparation and submission of the abstracts, as per the guidelines provided herein.

Abstract structure:

- Title
- Author
- Brief CV (maximum 500 words)
- Institution where you work
- Occupation
- Email address
- Telephone number
- Keywords or descriptors: between 5 and 10 keywords in Spanish and English (both languages)
- Abstract: maximum 250 words in Spanish and English (both languages)

If the organisation so decides, the winning papers may be defended at a later date, which will be announced in due course, following the in-person phase of the Congress.

PRESENTATION, DEFENCE AND DISSEMINATION OF THE PAPERS:

The presentation and defence of the winning papers will take place, if the organisation so decides, at a public event following the Congress.

The specific time and order in which the presentations will be defended will be notified to the person concerned in advance.

The organisation may upload the selected papers to the Congress website.

Likewise, if so requested, the papers may be presented in a webinar over the online platform.

OBTAINING A CERTIFICATE:

Any person who submitted a paper will receive a certificate within three months from the end of the 14TH CONGRESS FOR THE STUDY OF VIOLENCE AGAINST WOMEN.

Furthermore, when expressly requested, a specific certificate will be issued to those present their work via a webinar on the virtual platform.

ACCEPTANCE OF THE TERMS:

The submission of the paper constitutes acceptance of the terms of this call for papers. The organisation reserves the right to reject papers that do not comply with the terms herein and/or are submitted after the deadline.
